Market Outlook – October 2024

In Oct'24, Indian Small caps and Mid caps dipped, falling by 3.8%/8.0% respectively, and all the sectors ended the month in red. Healthcare (-2.1%) and Financials (-4.0%) held up relatively well while Consumer Staples (-12.2%), Consumer Discretionary (-10.9%) and Energy (-10.8%) saw deep selloffs. The Indian market showed sharp declines (marking its worst fall since COVID-19 pandemic), with an expectation for a correction playing out given the sharp growth Indian indices have shown in the past few quarters. This, combined with the quarterly results broadly showcasing a slowdown, impacted the record-breaking spree the Indian markets were witnessing. However, with the corrections shown in Oct'24, the potential for the market to go through another cycle of strong growth is high. This is supported by IMF retaining India's GDP growth forecast to 7% for FY25.

The month was characterized by the following global events: (1) Sharp rally in Chinese market at beginning of Oct'24; (2) Escalating geopolitical tensions in the Middle East; (3) Uncertainty surrounding the upcoming US presidential election. Some of the other key developments at the local level: (1) SEBI introduced plans to curtail retail participation in speculative index derivatives; (2) Continued FPI outflows; (3) Weak Q2 Earnings Results (34 Nifty-50 companies have reported results so far and net income increased by 1.9% YoY); (4) The government increased the minimum support price for rabi crops; (5) The RBI banned four NBFCs from sanctioning and disbursing loans; (6) The IMF retained India's GDP forecast at 7% for FY2025.

While the FII outflow was at a record high (US$10.4 Bn), FII inflows were still positive YTD (~$0.6bn of FII net inflows YTD). The Indian DII recorded the highest ever inflow clocking in US$12.8 Bn in Oct'24 (Sep'24: US$3.8 Bn) and remained net buyers for the 14th consecutive month. Mutual funds were net buyers in Oct'24 with inflows of US$10.4 Bn (Sep'24: US$3.9 Bn).

Retail investors were also net buyers with US$2.8 Bn of equity bought in Oct'24, signaling strong domestic confidence in the market.

Composite PMI declined to 58.6 in Oct'24 (Sep'24: 59.3) and Aug'24 industrial production slowed to -0.1% YoY (Jul'24: 4.7%). Sep'24 CPI print went up to 5.5% (Aug'24:3.7%) and WPI rose to 1.8% in (Aug'24: 1.3%). India's FX reserves came in at US$685 Bn (by 25th Oct 24), signaling a sale by RBI in the month till then. India's trade deficit swung from the 2nd highest absolute print on record of US$29.7 Bn in Aug'24 to a five-month low of US$20.8 Bn in Sep'24. India's service exports remain firm, with net service exports improving in Sep'24 to US$14.5 Bn (US$14.0 Bn average in last 3 months). Both gross service exports and imports have re-accelerated in recent months, though import growth has outpaced export growth. On the back of higher trade deficits, the current account deficit is expected to widen to 1.7% of GDP this quarter (1.1% of GDP last quarter).

Our long-term optimism on Indian equities remains intact, particularly given the country's resilient economic fundamentals and the supportive domestic consumption story. While the Indian market, driven by FII pessimism, fear of Chinese subsidies and the uncertainty on the upcoming US presidential elections, showcased a strong decline, the domestic confidence in the market, exemplified by the strong inflows, positive GDP growth forecasts and lowering trade deficit, means that India has a more reliable supply of risk capital dovetailing into less volatility in equities and a more predictable growth – a virtuous cycle hitherto never seen before. Further, FTSE Russell is adding India to its gauge of emerging market debt from 2025, citing officials' progress in improving market access. The recognition of the resilience of the Indian market remains strong and with this year's festive season kicking off, consumption is likely to go in a positive trajectory, boosting the economy further.

The Morningstar Rating TM for funds, or "star rating," is calculated for managed products (including mutual funds, variable annuity and variable life subaccounts, exchange-traded funds, closed-end funds, and separate accounts) with at least a three-year history. Exchange-traded funds and open-ended mutual funds are considered a single population for comparative purposes. The top 10% of products in each product category receive 5 stars, the next 22.5% receive 4 stars, the next 35% receive 3 stars, the next 22.5% receive 2 stars, and the bottom 10% receive 1 star. The Overall Morningstar Rating for a managed product is derived from a weighted average of the performance figures associated with its three-, five-, and 10-year (if applicable) Morningstar Rating metrics. The weights are: 100% three-year rating for 36-59 months of total returns, 60% five-year rating/40% three-year rating for 60-119 months of total returns, and 50% 10-year rating/30% five-year rating/20% three-year rating for 120 or more months of total returns. While the 10-year overall star rating formula seems to give the most weight to the 10-year period, the most recent three-year period has the greatest impact because it is included in all three rating periods.

Lipper Leaders for Total Return may be the best fit for investors who want the best historical return, without looking at risk. This measure alone may not be suitable for investors who want to avoid downside risk. For more risk-averse investors, Total Return ratings can be used with Preservation and/or Consistent Return ratings to make an appropriate selection that balances the risk and return. The funds in each index receive scores for each metric in each time period. The bottom 20% of funds receive a "1," the second quintile receives a "2," the third a "3," the fourth a "4." Meanwhile, the fifth quintile receives a "5." The top 20% of funds, those ranked "5," earn the "Lipper Leaders" designation.
